

Edna Jean Stinebiser

January 21, 1925 - October 1, 2016

Edna Jean Hutson Scott Stinebiser, 91 of E. Main St. Salem went to be with her Savior on Saturday, October 1, 2016. She was born on January 21, 1925 a daughter of the late Luther and Ethel Richards Hutson. Twice married she was preceded in death by her first husband Ezra Scott Jr. and is survived by her second husband of 70 years, Lester Stinebiser.

Also surviving are one son, Larry Edward Scott, Salem two grandsons, Jason Edward Scott and Brian Todd Scott, one great grandson, Hunter Scott, one niece, Brenda Cole and husband, Bob, one nephew, Kenneth Kinney and wife Mary Lou. One sister, Imogene Kinney and one brother, Lawrence Hutson preceded her in death.

Edna was a 1942 graduate of Bristol High School. She worked for Maiden Form for 12 years as a seamstress and retired from Salem Glass as a packer. Edna had been crowned Beauty Queen of Salem. She enjoyed quilting and playing canasta. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother and will be sadly missed by her family and friends.

At Edna's request she was cremated and there will be no services. Harbert Funeral Home is privileged to serve the Stinebiser family.

“ Mrs. Stinebiser was such a lovely, classy, friendly and caring woman. I first met her when Rev. Stinebiser held the memorial service for my mother, Martha Corathers, in Salem. Such a lovely person. We exchanged Christmas cards ever after that date. My heartfelt and sincere sympathy is with all in the family. I pray you will be comforted by the love of God and friends in the days ahead.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort described in 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 provide comfort for your family. Losing a loved one in death is never easy, but the Bible assures us in Isaiah 25:8 that soon death will be no more. What a wonderful time that will be for all of us.
